SOME EMERGENCY MEALS FOR SUDDEN OCCASIONS

How the Housekeeper May Scramble a Toothsome Meal From Unscrambled Material.

GOOD THINGS FOR COOKS TO KNOW

Four Fine Salads: Liver Timbales; Omelette With Apples; Spanish Sauce; Prunes.

It is sometimes a puzzle for the best housekeeper to successfully cater to unexpected guests. But it can be done. A writer in Good Housekeeping shows how the ordinary larder may be made to furnish the extraordinary meal. For example:

Suppers are easy—a dish of fricassee, dried beef, with light, fluffy corn kasha, followed by lettuce or combination salad, covered with a good French dressing, a bit of cheese, toast, fruit, or wafers and cocoa make a hearty, appetizing and easily prepared supper, for instance.

To Make a Curry.

If there is cold meat in the house, make a curry, serve it in a border of boiled rice and garnish it with baked bananas. Serve afterward a lettuce salad, crackers or toast, and cocoa. If you are without cold meat, use cabbage for the salad; shave it fine and soak it in cold water while the supper is cooking. At serving time, drain, wring it dry in a towel and dress it with French or Roquefort dressing. The latter is made by rubbing a tablespoonful of Roquefort cheese with four or five tablespoonfuls of olive oil; when smooth, add a drop of tabasco, a half-teaspoonful of salt, and a few drops of vinegar. It is equally good on lettuce and romaine, or on a mixture of tender cress and well-bleached cabbage.

Other excellent emergency luncheon dishes are French omelette, eggs Benedict, eggs à la Martin, curry of eggs, croquette eggs with boiled ham or broiled chicken, minced meats on toast, and brown sauce of cold meat, while potatoes can be readily served au gratin, hashed brown, French fried or Hamburg.

Quick Soups.

Light quick soups can be made from materials usually at hand, and help out wonderfully. Of these, clear tomato, cream of celery and cream of potato are the best. Various kinds of delicious soups can be made from so-called scraps. If combinations of flavors are considered, many vegetables and fruits may be utilized. Meat salads, too, are permissible. If they follow an egg or macaroni dish, in the place of other meat.

Good combinations for salads are bananas and oranges, apples and celery, grated carrots and chopped beets, potatoes and beets, string beans and lettuce, boiled rice and Spanish onions, fresh tomatoes stuffed with minced meat, or sardines, fresh tomatoes stuffed with celery or asparagus tips. Spanish sweet peppers stuffed with cold baked beans, and hard-boiled eggs sliced on lettuce and covered with chopped celery, or a mixture of French dressing, mayonnaise being best suited to meat and fish salads.

Boudins.

These can be quickly made from any bit of left-over steak, chicken or roast. For six boudins, only a half-pint of meat is required. Chop the meat fine and season with a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper and a tablespoonful of chopped parsley. Put a half-cupful of soft bread crumbs in a saucepan, add a half-cupful of stock or hot water and cook for two minutes. Add the meat, when hot, take from the fire and add two well-beaten eggs. Fill small greased custard cups two-thirds full with the mixture; stand them in a shallow pan of hot water, and bake for about twenty minutes in a hot oven. Fill the bottom of a platter with cream sauce, turn the boudins out and arrange them neatly in it, garnish with parsley or nicely seasoned peas.

Eggs à la Martin.

Put two level tablespoonfuls of butter and two of flour; add a half-teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Pour half this sauce in the bottom of the platter. Break over it six fresh eggs and cover with the remaining sauce, spread over this a quarter of a pound of grated cheese and bake ten to fifteen minutes, until the eggs are set. Serve in the same dish.

PINS FOR THE MEDICAL COLLAR.

They are of gold and pearls.

THE BEST WAY

How to Freshen Celery When It Gets to Be Wilting.

To revive limp celery, dunk it or spray it with boiling water for a second or two and then put it into a bowl of cold water and letting the cold water run on it for some time. If you like your celery stalks curled, cut them a few inches down from the tops and immerse them in cold water into which a teaspoonful of carbonate of soda has been put.

To revive an aspidistra (which often shows signs of decay at this time of the year) put a teaspoonful of root into a pan of water and leave it two or three days until the leaves are dissolved. Then place the plant in it and leave it there twenty-four hours. This is not only a tonic to the plant, but it also kills the worms that have been blighting it. After this treatment, do not water again for ten days, if possible.

A feature of the new nightgowns is the very sheer yoke extending over the bust.

Kimono and set-on sleeves are as popular for children's dresses as for women's.

Mock Turtle Soup or Calf's Head.
Scald the calf's head and remove the brain, tie it up in a cloth and boil for an hour, or until the meat will easily slip from the bone. Take out, wash and cut into small square pieces and throw them into cold water, when pour it into stew pan and cover with some of the broth; let it boil until quite tender and set aside.
In another stew pan melt some butter and stir in a quarter of a pound of lean ham, cut small, with fine herbs, to taste, a little parsley and one onion; add about a pint of the broth, let simmer for two hours and add the remainder of the broth and a cap of Madeira or sherry, let all simmer for ten minutes and rub through a medium sieve, add the calf's head, season with a very little cayenne pepper, a little salt, the juice of one lemon, a pinch of pounded mace improves the flavor, and force meat balls are a welcome addition to the soup.

WORTH KNOWING

In cooking very sour fruits, put in a very little salt and much less sugar will be necessary.
An excellent way to stiffen the collar and cuffs of men's negligee shirts is to use a starch containing gum arabic. Put two ounces of white gum, finely powdered, in a glass bottle or fruit jar, pouring over it one pint of boiling water, cork and shake until the powder is dissolved. After twenty-four hours strain through a cheese-cloth and preserve the clear gum water for use. Add one tablespoonful to each quart of starch.
To make ridge smooth and creamy, add to it (while making) a level teaspoonful of cornstarch.

Rub paraffin on the thread of a fountain pen before screwing on the head and it will prevent leaking.

Use a sheet of asbestos laid over the top of the stove if you wish to make a large quantity of toast at once.

A galvanized tub should be cleaned with gasoline or kerosene, and then scrubbed with hot water and soap.

When making lemon pies, instead of using cornstarch or flour, grate one potato to each pie and the pie will be delicious. The potato tastes much like cocoanut, and the custard is thickened just enough.

Grease the bottoms of pots and kettles before putting over the coals and they will not become black.

Paint the inside of bureau drawers with white enamel if you would have them always fresh and easy to keep clean.

Always try to cut curtains "on the thread" if you would have them hang true.

Try beating carpets and rugs on a set of bed springs—they will look as if done by a professional.

The lime deposits in tea kettle may be removed by filling the kettle with rain water and gradually heating and letting the water boil until the lime scales off, perhaps an hour, more or less, depending on the depth of the deposit.

Skirt Comfort.

In every detail the taffeta costume was a success. In the very darkest of blue the skirt was sufficiently full to give ease in walking, without falling into the exaggerated lines that are the mark of the big dressmakers are launching. The short, triple flounced tunic gives the necessary width at the hips, and the ends that fall in front indicate the sash that winds around the waist of the lawn blouse. Can anything be prettier for the little packet with its soft folds beneath the arm that all our jackets require to-day? The sleeves and collar in the taffeta help the effect, and give a bright touch. There is a strap of green at the waist, and the narrower line of the same silk that covers the joining of the blue basque. Fancy buttons with a green center and a blue rim finish these strappings.

The Almond Line.

Most of the new coats display the line, in some the basques are cut away in front from the waist, or the one large button with which they fasten, displaying above the chic skirt. Others have short fronts and the very long almond-shaped tail at the back, and on the more elaborate models a taffeta term wear one or more narrow taffeta flounces en forme are posed on the basque.

Prills and Pouches.

In contrast to these avante tailors' gowns are the full, flared, draped, draperies of lighter frocks for afternoon and evening, though these also strike the note of graceful simplicity. There is a positive rage for plisse bouffes and trills in lace, tulle and net, and mousseline de soie, and taffeta. Delightful little dance frocks have three deep plisse flounces of tulle extending from waist to ankle, posed on net to match, and worn over a plain taffeta japon of the same tint; kimono corsage of the tulle, and a wide cascade of colours or satin. One of palest blue have a cascade composed of two bands of deep navy, tinted velvet ribbon and a centre band of silver tissue, embroidered with a design of pansies in amethyst and purple jewels.

Making the Bird Bath.

If for some reason or other your canary refuses to take a bath, try this remedy:

Don't give him any lettuce or green for a week. Then put a small ball of fresh green lettuce in the bottom of his bath.

The bird's desire for the lettuce will almost always cause him to go into the water before very long.

RECIPES AND REPLIES

Liver Timbales.

Place one pound and a half of liver in a saucepan, add one slice of onion, one-half of a bay leaf, one teaspoonful of salt and half a dozen peppercorns, pour over sufficient boiling water to cover and simmer slowly till tender. Let stand until cold, then take out the meat, discard tubes and gristle, and put through the food chopper. Measure and to two salt cups, add one cupful of fresh bread crumbs soaked in milk or chicken stock, a high seasoning of salt and pepper, ten drops of onion juice, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter and one teaspoonful of finely chopped parsley. Fill well-buttered timbale molds. Stand in a pan of hot water, and cook in a moderate oven until firm in the centre. Serve with a good brown sauce, to which may be added chopped olives.

Pepper Omelette With Cheese.

Toast green peppers and the fire, remove the seeds and cut in small pieces. Have some hot lard in a saucepan, into which throw a handful of chopped onion and the same amount of tomatoes, with paprika or cayenne, sweet green or red pepper, which has been finely grated. When this has cooked and browned lightly, add four eggs, one tomato, skinned and chopped or the thick part of one can of tomatoes. Let all simmer together for twenty minutes with occasional stirring to prevent burning. Add salt and pepper, with paprika or cayenne to taste; two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup and a dessertspoonful of Worcestershire sauce. Take from the fire when the consistency of good cream.

Spanish Sauce.

This is delicious to use with boiled or fried fish, chicken, etc. Put into a stewpan two tablespoonfuls of butter one tablespoonful of oil. When effervescent, add a shake or two of salt and one large onion, one full section of garlic and one-half of large, sweet green or red pepper, which has been finely grated. When this has cooked and browned lightly, add four eggs, one tomato, skinned and chopped or the thick part of one can of tomatoes. Let all simmer together for twenty minutes with occasional stirring to prevent burning. Add salt and pepper, with paprika or cayenne to taste; two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup and a dessertspoonful of Worcestershire sauce. Take from the fire when the consistency of good cream.

Spring Salad.

Line grapefruit baskets with dandelion leaves, endive, much or lettuce. To every two cups of young green peas allow one of the canned button variety of mushrooms, a like amount of tender young carrots sliced, half a cupful of halved English walnuts and one cupful of pimiento cut in strips. A few fresh dandelion blossoms and leaves tied to the handle of each basket will carry out the idea of spring.

Mayonnaise in French dressing can be used with this salad, and for a pleasing and appetizing variety add either one cupful of shrimps or lobster meat, marinated in French dressing.

Combination Salad.

Take equal parts of cold boiled asparagus tips, tiny new whole potatoes, marinating both. Between each layer add a few slices of young turnip, young carrots, radishes and celery and a little grated onion or sliced spring onions. A chopped truffe or two makes a pleasing, though expensive, addition. Serve with French dressing.

Horseradish Sauce.

This sauce is especially good for roast beef. Grate a tablespoonful of horseradish, mix it with three tablespoonfuls of cream, a teaspoonful of mustard, the same amount of vinegar and of sugar, with salt according to taste.

Brussels-Sprouts Salad.

Place cold boiled Brussels sprouts in a salad bowl with serruce leaves. Mix together some of the big dressmakers are launching. The short, triple flounced tunic gives the necessary width at the hips, and the ends that fall in front indicate the sash that winds around the waist of the lawn blouse. Can anything be prettier for the little packet with its soft folds beneath the arm that all our jackets require to-day? The sleeves and collar in the taffeta help the effect, and give a bright touch. The short, triple flounced tunic gives the necessary width at the hips, and the ends that fall in front indicate the sash that winds around the waist of the lawn blouse. Can anything be prettier for the little packet with its soft folds beneath the arm that all our jackets require to-day? The sleeves and collar in the taffeta help the effect, and give a bright touch. There is a strap of green at the waist, and the narrower line of the same silk that covers the joining of the blue basque. Fancy buttons with a green center and a blue rim finish these strappings.

Place cold boiled Brussels sprouts in a salad bowl with serruce leaves. Mix together some of the big dressmakers are launching.
